It is one of my personal favorite books. Sure, it is engaging, and continues to be an amazing and interesting literature. I am quickly able to possibly get a enjoyment of looking at a published book.

WERE NOT LEAVING: 911 RESPONDERS TELL THEIR STORIES OF COURAGE, SACRIFICE, AND RENEWAL

Greenpoint Press. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Robert Lascaro Book Designer (illustrator). Paperback. 328 pages. Were Not Leaving is a compilation of powerful first-person narratives told from the vantage point of World Trade Center disaster workers: police officers, firefighters, construction workers, and other volunteers at the site. While the effects of 911 on these everyday heroes and heroines are indelible, and in some cases have been devastating, at the heart of their deeply personal stories are their harrowing escapes from the falling Towers, the egregious environment they worked in for months, the alarming health effects they continue to deal with, their witness to their personal strength and renewal in the ten years since. These stories, shared by ordinary people who responded to disaster and devastation in extraordinary ways, remind us of America's strength and inspire us to recognize and ultimately believe in our shared values of courage, duty, patriotism, self-sacrifice, and devotion, which guide us in dark times. The book's author, Benjamin Luft, M.D., a Professor of Medicine at SUNY Stony Brook is an internationally recognized expert in the treatment of Lyme disease and AIDS-related conditions. As a native New Yorker he was deeply impacted by the 911 attacks and was inspired to establish the Long Island World Trade Center Medical Monitoring and Treatment Program, which provides care to more than 6,000 disaster responders and has become an incubator for several important research and treatment programs that emphasize both mental and physical well-being. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg, OR, or La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
