

Adoptees Ethnic Identity Within Family and Social Contexts: Number 150: New Directions for Child and Adolescent Development

By -

John Wiley Sons Inc, United States, 2016. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 228 x 150 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. This special issue addresses the construction of ethnic identity among international transracial adoptees, which typically involve the placement of Black, Asian, Hispanic, or Multiracial children with White parents. International transracial adoptees, similar to immigrants, navigate a cultural and ethnic context other than their birth culture. However, they are unique in that they navigate these experiences within families who don't share their cultural, ethnic, and racial background. Critical questions emerge about the construction and development of their ethnic identity. These questions include * the role that transracial adoptive parents play in providing cultural socialization (exposure to children's birth culture); * the impact of culture camps designed to provide cultural socialization in the context of peers; * the intersection of adoptive identity and ethnic identity and youth adjustment; * whether relations between ethnic identity and adjustment are linear or curvilinear; * the role of bicultural identity integration as a link between ethnic identity and psychosocial adjustment; and * ethnic identity processes among internationally transracially adopted young adults who mentor younger adoptees from similar cultures. These questions are addressed in...
