Much can be said about getting our children who are normal, studying their ability to work up and benefit the community, but stressing the mere fact of abnormal children, there is only one period in which we can get all these things corrected, and that is the golden period of childhood From our study of twenty thousand and odd public-school children we have found 92 per cent were mentally defective. There are State institutions provided by legislation in all except three States, and those are Wyoming, Arizona, and New Mexico. In many of the Southern States legislation has provided some institutions nut they are not yet in full operation. Our study shows that while there are 700,000 feeble-minded people in this country, about 40,000 are being cared for by State institutions. I want to stress this one point, and that is the fact..
