Excerpt: .stove in dining car and from explosion of gas tanks. In collision NO. 1, which occurred at 5 a. m., two freight trains running toward each other collided with sufficient force to cause the damage stated and to cause the fatal scalding of one of the firemen. The collision was due to the failure of the men on the east-bound train to keep in mind a dispatcher s order to meet the west-bound train at B; and in consequence of this lapse of memory the train ran 2 miles beyond B. The meeting order was delivered to the conductor of the east-bound train at A, but it appears that he was asleep or drowsy when it was given to him. The flagman, who claims that he had awakened the conductor, was told by the latter to go to the telegraph oflice and get the meeting order which was waiting, and he did so, signing the conductor s name. The engineman made no objection to this improper action of the flagman. The telegraph operator was a new ma-11 and did not know that the man signing for the order was not the conductor. Returning to the caboose, the flagman did not deliver the order into the hands of the conductor, who was in the cupola, but put it under the edge of a water bucket, expecting the conductor to take it when he got down from the cupola; but the flagman claims that he told...
