Goggin, of Bedford, on Federal Relations: In the Convention of Virginia, on the 26th February, 1861 The order of the day, Resolutions touching the relations of the States to each other and to the Union, coming up for consideration, Mr. Goggin said: Mr. President, I should not ask the attention of this body today upon the great and important questions which now distract the country, were it not that I feel it to be my duty at this time, to express the views which will govern and control my action here. I have come here as a member of this body to endeavor, in such a manner as may seem proper to myself, to discharge the high, responsible duty which rests upon me, as one of those who have been clothed with the sovereignty and power of my native State. I have not, heretofore, as you will bear me witness, occupied one moments time and attention of this body, and I assure you, sir, that I now enter upon the performance...
