It is difficult to love and serve the Lord with a broken heart. It often seems that those who are heartless go their merry way and sail through life, while some who work tirelessly for the Lord and do their best to walk with God see disaster after disaster. There is no greater pain on earth than the loss of a child-except the loss of more than one child. Whether it is quick and unexpected or a long, agonizing march to the end, the pain cuts so deep that it takes our breath away. It makes no sense. But there are many things in life that leave us asking, Why, God? When life beats us up, when we can barely lift our head because we are so broken, it's hard to remember that God is good-all the time. This book of Life's Unfair prayers is meant to heal the broken, encourage the wounded and point us to the God who loves us infinitely and works all things together for our good.
