[...]and all manner of varnish things for dress, that none of the boys will do right unless you look after em yourself. But is it likely that he should know what a worry a Top s complexion is, and how hard it is to come right with all the Fast Brown polishing in the world? How should he guess what a piece of work it is to get em all of a color, and how like they are to come mottled, and how a most sure they ll ten to one go off dark just as they re growing yellow, and put you to shame, let you do what you will to make em cut a shine over the country? How should he know? I don t complain of that; bless you, he never thinks. It s do this, Rake, do that ; and he never remembers tisn t done by magic. But he s a true gentleman, Mr. Cecil; never grudge a guinea, or a fiver to you; never out of temper[.].
