A piece of cartridge paper about eight inches by five. 1 Vol. v., p. 42. 10. A changing tube (as described at page 260, supra). 11. A black glove. The table stands from the outset of the performance in readiness upon the stage, and the various articles above specified are placed upon it. The cigar-box is turned with its open side away from the spectators, and behind it lies the changing tube, loaded with the black glove. The piece of cartridge paper is laid upon the cigar-box, in such manner that one of its ends may project over the back, and so mask the presence of the changing tube. The net servante is attached behind the right-hand side of the table (as viewed by the spectators) and on the table, just above it, lies the magic...
