Once only did she evade his orders, in the matter of drawing up the conditions relative to the proposal of marriage made by the Empress of Russia, regarding an alliance between the future Czar, and one of the Landgraf s daughters. Here Caroline made use of a woman s ruse to prevent the ridiculous and inflated proposals of the Landgraf reaching the Russian Court. For the rest she always kept on terms with her exigeant husband and wrote to him every day.1 At a distance she seems to have had more influence over her strange husband than at close quarters, and succeeded in inducing him to summon Friedrich von Moser to Darmstadt in the capacity of Minister. His social reforms caused widespread...
