Once the culture shock wears off, he passes on the valuable lessons of coming at life from a whole new, slightly warped view in a sardonic commentary on the world around us. Having gone from twenty years of Fortune 500 and government clients to being embroiled in broilers and a simpler clientele, Gordon shares his unique perspective on everything from parenting to politics, economics to education, travel to trials, and just where you can put your cell phone, encouraging us all the while to let go of our inner Booby.
