A new and dangerous dynamic has been introduced into the Mexican internal security environment. That new dynamic involves the migration of power from traditional state and nonstate adversaries to nontraditional nonstate private military organizations such as the Zetas, enforcer gangs like the Aztecas, Negros, and Polones, and paramilitary triggermen. Moreover, the actions of these irregular nonstate actors tend to be more political-psychological than military, and further move the threat from hard power to soft power solutions. In this connection, we examine the macro what, why, who, how, and so what? questions concerning the resultant type of conflict that has been and is being fought in Mexico. A useful way to organize these questions is to adopt a matrix approach. The matrix may be viewed as having four sets of elements: (1) The Contextual Setting, (the what? and beginning why questions); (2) The Protagonist s Background, Organization, Operations, Motives, and Linkages (the fundamental who? why? and how questions); (3) The Strategic-Level Outcomes and Consequences (the basic so what? question; and (4) Recommendations that address the salient...
